AMERICAN EAGLES

Soar thou American eagles,
Over mountains, land and sea,
Thy mighty wings and talons
Shall win our victory.

Thy wings of steel shall conquer,
Wherever you shall go;
The stars and stripes shall follow,
And vanquish every foe.

Under thy mighty wingspread,
Our boys both brave and true,
Shall follow unto victory,
And peace is born anew.

Back to thy lofty mountain heights,
Thou wilt return some day,
To guard this mighty domain,
Of the good old U. S. A.

POEMS

BY

ERIC MURRAY

IN COLABORATION WITH

ALICE GIBB

When the ground is all frost bit
And covered with snow
And its dismal and dreary
And there's no place to go.

Just bog yourself down
In a comfortable nook
And enjoy a good evening
Reading this book.
